Thomas Earwaker's "Simply Uplifting" Workshop Proves A Real Hit For Pinewood's Residents

The level of imagination that went into Thomas Earwaker's "Simply Uplifting" workshop was absolutely phenomenal to see and be a part of. All his props consisted of were a balloon and some music. Even so, the enjoyment gained by residents and visitors alike from these simple tools was truly astounding and we very much look forward to welcoming him back shortly.

Why have Easter Eggs when you can have living ones?

The arrival of Easter has meant that residents at Pinewood are being treated to a unique 12 day experience. A number of embryo eggs will be arriving that are only 2-3 days from hatching. The eggs will be put into a specially designed incubator box with a viewing window and a brooder box to raise the chickens in. Hopefully, they will hatch on Easter Sunday!

Get ready for the Easter Garden!

Jenny and Glyn will be coming in during the Easter Festival to help residents build their very own Easter Garden. Watch this space in the next issue of our newsletter to see a photo of the finished product. All going well, we can look forward to a beautifully colourful horticultural display. Looking further down the road, Sue and Paul have kindly invited the residents to visit their garden and share a cup of tea. Dates will be organised shortly.

Date and time booked for this year's Summer Fête

the event are going to Age Concern Budleigh Salterton.

At 2 p.m. on Saturday 4th June, Pinewood is holding it's annual Summer Fête. As with previous years, we can all look forward to a whole series of events taking place, including cream teas, cake stalls and a Bring and Buy. Hawkridge Birds of Prey have also been booked in to pay us another visit on the day. All proceeds from

The month that's past

There have been a fair few things happening at Pinewood during February. Most notably we need to give a big welcome to our new residents , Mona and Vera. Jennifer, Judy and Allen also enjoyed celebrating their birthdays with plenty of cake, presents and the mandatory rendition of "Happy Birthday" in perfect harmony! St Valentine's Day was also a cause for celebration in February as residents were given heart shaped cookies and cakes, not to mention the heart shaped croutons in their soup!

The month ahead

Plans for March include a visit from the Donkey Sanctuary on 3rd, Simon the Guitarist visiting on 11th and Luc Wulpot the harpist on 16th. We also have a few birthdays in the offing in March as well!

Our weekly activities agenda of course, still helps to ensure there's always something happening at Pinewood to keep everyone entertained. Most notably, our minibus outings especially are proving as popular as ever.

Monday: Tai Chi with Joe

Tuesday: Hairdressing with Jamie

Alternating Wednesdays and Thursdays: Mini bus outing

Pinewood's Home Care Service Grows From Strength To Strength

The development of the services provided by Pinewood out into the community are rapidly expanding. The service's newly appointed Deputy Manager, Sally Williams, has taken to her role fantastically. What's more, a number of additional Care Workers have also recently been taken on board specifically for the Home Care team; namely June, Michaela and Stephanie.
