Upcoming events

The Pinewood team have been planning the events for the year this month. Plans are in full swing! Some notable events to look forward to is our Spring tea party, Summer fete, Easter service as well as numerous charity days. If you have any ideas or would like to see what we have planned, please enquire at reception.

Do you like a singsong???? Then we need YOU!

Pinewood are looking at the possibility of setting up a small, fun and informal choir, not just for residents but for staff and family, with view to performing at our events as well as in the local area.

If you think you would enjoy singing some well known classics as well learning some new tunes then please register your interest at reception or by emailing lefarrant@gmail.com

The minibus is back in action!

After a short stint off the road the Minibus is Back in action! Residents are looking forward to the up and coming trips. This month the minibus visited Sidmouth and a great time was had by everyone that joined.

The minibus will be out and about every Wednesday afternoon, to a number of our favourite local destinations.

A big welcome to....

A big welcome to Harriet who is joining us From January to May as part of her NVQ Level 3 Health and social care course at Exeter college.
