Rolf and Jean Payne celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary

Rolf has been a resident with us since September last year and his wife Jean occasionally comes to stay with us. They celebrated their anniversary with friends and relatives in the lower lounge. They also had a special telegram from the Queen.

Rolf and Jean met in the spring of 1953. Rolf saw Jean standing at a bus stop and went home and told his Mother that he had seen the girl he was going to marry. Jean worked for the post office as a supervisor in the telephone exchange and in her spare time she was part of a dance formation team. So Rolf, who was still at college, learnt to dance and married Jean the following spring.

Rolf became a design consultancy for hospitals in public health engineering. He first worked for BRE and then set up his own consultancy business. He eventually became chairman of a European Commission setting the standards for Hospital design for the EEC. Jean gave up work when she married to look after the home although in her spare time she taught keep fit, which she did for ten years. Rolf and Jean had two children Timothy and Christine.

The residents have enjoyed several activities with Lisa over the past few months.

Baking and crafts

We also had a visit from the Olive Tree Theatre. Which was enjoyed by all and we look forward to seeing them again soon.

Congratulations to Helen Harris, our deputy Matron and Jordan Shaw, carer on the birth of their baby boys, Bobby and Dominic
